COLORADO SPRINGS COUNCIL PRESIDENT PRO TEM TO CHAIR CML POLICY COMMITTEE

September 8, 2017, Denver, CO— Colorado Springs Council President Pro Tem Jill Gaebler was selected by CML Executive Board President Carol Dodge, Northglenn Mayor Pro Tem, to chair the Colorado Municipal League's Policy Committee. The term begins immediately and lasts through June 2018.

"Residents expect municipal government to operate efficiently, effectively, and transparently. To do this we must have the autonomy and voice to make decisions that support and protect our municipalities" said Gaebler. "I'm honored to serve as the policy committee chair and advocate for the important issues facing cities and towns across Colorado."

With over 125 members representing municipalities and municipal professionals around the state, the CML Policy Committee is the primary policy-making body for the League. Positions on issues and legislation taken by the Policy Committee are sent to the CML Board, which will set CML's legislative agenda and official positions on legislation or policy issues.
