

Colorado Municipal League Web Site Privacy Statement

Colorado Municipal League is committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to our Web site and will take reasonable precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. CML stores all information you provide on secure servers.

Information you provide online to CML may be used to send you periodic mail or e-mail with information that may interest you. Because CML occasionally shares its postal mailing list, you may also receive postal mailings from other sources with information that may interest you.

When you visit, the CML server automatically collects your Internet provider address and the type of browser software you use. The server does not collect other personal identification information, and CML does not use cookies or acquire your e-mail address or other information without your knowledge. The information collected about your domain and browser is used to count visitors and to help CML improve the content and functionality of its Web site.

The CML Web site may contain links to other Web sites. We are not responsible for the privacy policies of other sites.

CML reserves the right to update and change this privacy statement, sometimes without notice. You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are familiar with any changes.

CML staff can be reached by e-mail through contact information on the "Contact Us" Web page, or by telephone at (303) 831-6411.
