

“Bob’s Rules of Order”

Robert (Bob) Widner

The following materials are excerpted from “The Colorado Handbook for Effective Local Government Meetings” (tentative title) which is in preparation for anticipated future publication. These materials are intended to support and aid understanding of information provided at various workshops and presentations in sessions conducted by the author often titled “Running Effective Meetings and Bob’s Rules of Order.”

The excerpted materials primarily include “Bob’s Rules of Order” which are offered as a simplified set of motions and rules premised very broadly on the seminal handbook Roberts Rules of Order.

It is hoped that, through a uniform understanding of simplified local procedural rules, government officials engaged in public meetings can more effectively conduct the public’s business.

An important disclaimer about legal advice:

These materials are for informational purposes only and not for the purpose of providing legal advice. You should contact your local attorney to obtain advice with respect to any particular issue or problem. If anything you read in these materials or hear during this presentation is inconsistent with your local attorney’s advice or counsel, your local attorney’s advice and counsel is correct.

A note about what rules govern your community:

Colorado local governments enjoy fairly broad authority to craft rules to govern their day-to-day affairs and the conduct of their local meetings. In determining what rules might govern a particular matter, it is important to consult your local ordinances, resolutions, and bylaws, and to have an understanding of the local historical practices that have guided your community meetings in the past. Overshadowing all of these local rules and practices is our state law -- to the extent it might be applicable – which should be considered when determining proper meeting procedure.

The rules and processes contained in these materials are not applicable to your community unless your community takes appropriate steps to formally incorporate the rules and processes into your local laws and policies.

Excerpts from Colorado Handbook for Effective Local Government Meetings
(Publication Pending)

Introduction

Efficient and well run public meetings are a necessity for local government. An efficient and well-run meeting allows all scheduled business to be accomplished, voices to be equally heard, and differences of opinion to be aired amicably. Whether the meeting issues are deeply challenging and emotional or simply ministerial and non-confrontational, a well-run meeting leaves all participants feeling that the decisions made during the meeting are the product of fairness, equality, and respect. Poorly run meetings can undermine confidence in local government by allowing a perceived inequality among participants when engaged in debate and discussion, injecting conflict and argument between the participants, and adding confusion to the decision-making process and uncertainty in the eventual decision. Unfortunately, efficient and well-run meetings for many Colorado local governments may be the exception and not the rule.

The seminal handbook, Roberts Rules of Order, is perhaps the most widely known set of rules designed to facilitate and manage meetings. Beginning with the pocket handbook first drafted in 1878, and with significant rewriting and amendment since that time, Roberts Rules of Order has evolved into a complex set of rules intended to organize large meetings of every type. Due to the sheer volume and complexity of Roberts Rules of Order, it is unreasonable for all meeting participants to fully comprehend and gain a working knowledge of Roberts Rules of Order. As a result, Roberts Rules of Order is often ineffective for use in conducting the meetings of local government.

“Bob’s Rules of Order” is intended as a simplified set of rules better suited to manage local government meetings and decision-making within Colorado. Although Bob’s Rules of Order calls upon the basic concepts offered by Robert’s Rules, Bob’s Rules pares down the available motions to those essential to advance the goal of running an efficient public meeting for Colorado local government.

Key Terminology

Amendment (or to Amend) - An amendment is a motion to change, to add words to, or to omit words from, a pending main motion. The change is usually to clarify or improve the wording of the original motion and must, of course, be germane to that motion.

Body – The formally constituted organization commissioned with the obligation and duty to act on behalf of the local government.

Chairperson – The person appointed or elected to preside over the meeting.

Floor – The privilege or right to speak to the body.

Member – A person appointed or elected to hold office as a recognized participant of the body.

Permission for reasonable use can be requested by contacting the author, Robert C. Widner at rwidner@wmcattorneys.com or 13133 E. Arapahoe Road, Suite 100, Centennial, Colorado 80112.

Motion – A formal proposal seeking specific action by the body typically preceded by the words “I move that ...” Motions are generally introduced by voice but may be presented in writing.

Moving Party – The Member presenting a motion or point for action by the body.

Out of Order – An act or action that fails to comport with these Rules of Order

Point – A declaration of a member addressed to the chairperson requesting to bring before the body a matter for immediate decision or resolution. There are three recognized points: (1) Point of Order; (2) Point of Information; and (3) Point of Appeal.

Second – An oral declaration by a Member to express that a motion offered to the body should receive debate or discussion.

General Rules Governing the Meeting

- Floor Required to Address Body. Except when raising a Point (Point of Order, Point of Information, or Point of Appeal), a Member must first be recognized by the Chairperson and be given the floor in order to address the Body.
- Time Limit for Floor. A Member’s right to the floor should be limited to five (5) minutes. A Member may request that the Chairperson grant additional time. Such request should customarily be granted by the Chairperson unless the Chairperson determines that other Members are waiting to be recognized to obtain the floor or that meeting efficiency necessitates that the requested extension be denied. When one Member is denied a request for an extension of time to speak, no other Member shall be granted an extension of time for the same agenda item.
- Limitation on Obtaining Floor. A Member should only speak once to any motion under debate until such time that all others seeking the floor have been provided an opportunity to speak to the motion.
- No Interruptions or Side Discussions. In order to maintain a clear recorded meeting record, only one person shall speak at any one time. Interrupting a person who has the floor or engaging in side discussions while another person has the floor is out of order.
- Second Required for Debate. All motions must receive a second before debate or discussion may begin. A second does not connote approval of the motion but only that the Member offering the second supports fuller discussion of the motion.
- Chairperson Discretion. The Chairperson may independently decide to deviate from the Rules of Order in order to increase meeting efficiency and to best enable full and informed discussion of a matter before the Body. However, such independent action by the Chairperson remains subject to a Point of Order and Point of Appeal through which a Member can bring the meeting into full compliance with the Rules of Order.

- Voting:

Vote Requirement. A majority vote of the quorum present is required for any motion unless a different requirement is set by these Rules of Order or by applicable law. For example, a supermajority (2/3rds of quorum present) is required for a Motion to Call the Question pursuant to these Rules of Order and a supermajority (2/3rds of a quorum present) is required for a motion for executive session pursuant to the Colorado Open Meetings Law (C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)).

Aye or Nay Vote Required. A vote of aye or nay (or another form of affirmative or negative declaration such as “yes” or “no”) shall be taken upon motions. Every Member, when present, must vote aye or nay unless:

- (1) The Member is excused by the Chairperson due to the Member’s declaration of a conflict of interest at the introduction of the agenda item or immediately upon discovery of a legally recognized conflict of interest; or
- (2) The Member is excused by the Chairperson because the member is without sufficient information upon which to enable an informed vote due to an absence at a prior meeting, e.g., the member did not attend the meeting for which meeting minutes are moved for approval.

No Abstention. An unexcused member’s vote to “abstain” or other similar declaration other than “aye” or “nay” shall be recorded as a “nay” vote on the pending motion or matter.

No Explanation of Vote. Members shall not explain their vote except during discussion and deliberation prior to the calling of the vote on the question. Any attempt to explain a vote or to condition the vote immediately prior to casting the vote is out of order.

Meeting Notice, Minutes, and Recording of Meetings

A. Notice

The most effective meetings involve active participation by varying viewpoints and opinions. Participation is best achieved through adequate and reasonable notice given to interested parties.

Notice of a meeting should include information that would clearly inform the layperson of the date, time, place, and general purpose of the meeting.

[Materials Deleted from Original]

It is often surprising for some to learn that state law requires relative little notice to the public of local government meetings where business may be conducted. In fact, absent any local rules or practices requiring greater notice, most meetings can be conducted, and important public business accomplished with as little as 24 hours' notice posted at some general location in the community that is annual designated and could include a local bulletin board.¹ Locally adopted rules can greatly aid in the effort of providing greater notice to inform the community of meetings. Municipalities should consider establishing minimum notice requirements and, if desired non-mandatory or "courtesy" notice guidelines with the understanding that failure to comply with the mandatory requirements may undermine the ability to conduct a meeting or, at worst, invalidate action taken during a meeting held without compliance with the required notice.

Chairperson's Privileges & Duties

- Chairperson to Direct Meeting. The Chairperson is privileged to act as the director of the meeting. The Chairperson shall seek to clarify the actions pending before the Body during the meeting and prior to a vote. For example, the Chairperson is encouraged to restate motions, announce expectations for the meeting agenda, and recommend to the Body the proper procedure or rules for a particular course of action. The Chairperson has a continuing right to the floor although, like any other member, shall be held to compliance with the Rules of Order.
- Chairperson as Parliamentarian. The Chairperson is the meeting parliamentarian and shall decide all questions of process and procedure. Such decisions are subject to appeal by a Point of Appeal. The Chairperson may consult with the Body's legal counsel or administrative staff to assist in rendering decisions regarding the application of the Rules of Order.
- Chairperson as Facilitator of Discussion. As the meeting director, the Chairperson should generally encourage and enlist other Members to propose or to second motions and to lead initial debate. Nevertheless, the Chairperson is entitled to the same rights as Members regarding the presentation of motions, seconding motions, and debate and may exercise such privilege as deemed appropriate by the Chairperson.
- Temporary Informal Recesses. The Chairperson may declare a temporary recess without motion or consent of the Body. However, no recess shall be declared which would interrupt a member who has properly secured the floor to speak.

"Any meetings at which the adoption of any proposed policy, position, resolution, rule, regulation, or formal action occurs or at which a majority or quorum of the body is in attendance, or is expected to be in attendance, shall be held only after full and timely notice to the public. In addition to any other means of full and timely notice, a local public body shall be deemed to have given full and timely notice if the notice of the meeting is posted in a designated public place within the boundaries of the local public body no less than twenty-four hours prior to the holding of the meeting. The public place or places for posting such notice shall be designated annually at the local public body's first regular meeting of each calendar year. The posting shall include specific agenda information where possible."

Moving Party's Privileges

- At any time prior to receiving a second on a motion, the Moving Party may unilaterally withdraw or unilaterally amend a motion provided that the Moving Party has the floor. A motion, once seconded, belongs to the decision-making Body and the Moving Party's privileges are limited.
- The Moving Party retains the following limited privileges after the motion receives a second if the Moving Party has properly secured the floor to speak:
 - A. The Moving Party may speak to the rationale, purpose, meaning, or need of the motion prior to the opening of full debate to other members of the Body.
 - B. The Moving Party may withdraw his/her seconded motion unless an objection is raised by Point of Order. An objection to the Moving Party's withdraw of the seconded motion will summarily defeat the Moving Party's request to withdraw.
 - C. The Moving Party may accept a proposed amendment (a "Friendly Amendment") unless an objection is raised by Point of Order. An objection to a Friendly Amendment will summarily defeat the Moving Party's privilege to accept a Friendly Amendment and, in such case, a formal Motion to Amend would be in order.
 - D. During debate, to further explain or clarify the meaning, intent, or purpose of the motion or to otherwise respond to a Point of Information.

[Materials Deleted from Original]

Classes & Priority for Points and Motions

There are three classes for motions and points: (1) Privileged; (2) Main; and (3) Subordinate. The class determines the priority or importance of the motion or point and, therefore, determines whether the motion or point is "in order" when made, i.e., if the motion or point proposed is appropriate for the Body to consider at the time it is presented.

- PRIVILEGED motions, which include all three Points, do not require a pending main motion on the floor and do not relate directly to a pending question. Privileged motions or points may be raised at any time. Privileged points do not require the floor; privileged motions require the floor. Privileged motions oftentimes involve an administrative or ministerial aspect of the meeting that needs to be resolved independently of the business then-pending before the Body. The following motions or points are recognized as privileged and are listed in order of precedence:
 - Point of Order
 - Point of Information

This document contains excerpts from previously copyrighted material and in this form is also protected by copyright. Permission for reasonable use can be requested by contacting the author, Robert C. Widner at rwidner@wmcattorneys.com or 13133 E. Arapahoe Road, Suite 100, Centennial, Colorado 80112.

- Point of Appeal
 - Motion to Recess
 - Motion for Executive Session
- A MAIN motion formally presents to the Body an item for action. A Main motion can be made only when no other motion is pending. If a Main motion is presented when another pending motion or point is before the Body, it is out of order.

Although there are as many Main motions as there are subject matters that a Body may consider, there are four (4) commonly recognized specific Main motions used in local government decision-making:

- Motion to Adjourn
 - Motion to Reconsider
 - Motion to Postpone an Agenda Item to a Date Certain
 - Motion to Postpone Indefinitely
- A SUBORDINATE motion is related to and supplements or builds upon the Main motion. A Subordinate motion must be dealt with before the Main motion can be voted on. A Subordinate motion is in order only when there is a pending main motion on the floor. Once a seconded Subordinate motion is pending on the floor, neither a MAIN motion nor another Subordinate motion is in order.

There are three (3) recognized Subordinate motions:

- Motion to Amend (a Main Motion)
- Motion to Continue Matter Before the Body to Date Certain
- Motion to Call the Question (Close Debate)

Points and Motions in Detail

A. Points

There are three "Points:" (1) Point of Order; (2) Point of Information; and (3) Point of Appeal. Points do not require a second. They are each "privileged" and may be raised at any time.

- Point of Order (or to "raise a question of order" as it is sometimes expressed), is an opportunity for a Member to express an opinion that the rules or procedures of the Body are being violated. The appropriate means of asserting such opportunity is for the member to wait for a break in the discussion and state "Point of Order" and wait to be recognized by the Chairperson. Any existing debate or discussion should cease. Upon the Chairperson's recognition, the member must succinctly state the general rule or procedure believed to be in violation. A point of order should not interrupt another speaker, does not require a second, is not debatable, is not amendable, and cannot be reconsidered. For example:

Member Jones was granted the floor and proposed a motion to approve a site plan. Member Jones then proceeded to discuss the rationale for his motion.

Member Jones: [has the floor and is engaged in debate on a motion, he pauses in his debate]

Member Smith: "Point of Order."

Chairperson: "Excuse me a moment, Mr. Jones. The Chairperson recognizes Ms. Smith."

Member Smith: "I believe we are debating a motion that did not receive a second. I believe that this is out of order because a motion requires a second before debate."

Chairperson: "You are correct Ms. Smith, I do not recall a second was offered. Therefore, let us cease debate. Do I have a second on the motion? [A second is offered]. Thank you for your Point of Order, Ms. Smith. Mr. Jones, you have the floor and may commence debate."

- Point of Information is a request to receive information on a specific question, either about process, meeting conduct, clarification of a motion, or about a fact at any time during a meeting. A Point of Information is not an opportunity for a member to provide information to the Body and should never be used as a means of continuously interrupting the flow of debate. Using a Point of Information to provide information or to interrupt debate would be out of order.

As an example of the proper use of a Point of Information while the Body is engaged in debate on a seconded motion:

Member Quinn: [Has the floor and is offering her thoughts on a pending matter.]

Member Frank: "Madam Chairperson, Point of Information"

Chairperson: "Excuse me a moment, Ms. Quinn. The Chairperson recognizes Member Frank."

Member Frank: "Ms. Quinn said there are more than 5,000 vehicles passing through the Main Street intersection during the peak evening hours. But I recall that our Traffic Engineer stated earlier that the traffic count at the intersection during evening peak hours was only 1,500 vehicles. What is the correct number?"

Chairperson: "Let's have the Traffic Engineer provide us the accurate figure for traffic count."

Following the Traffic Engineer's advisement, Ms. Quinn again has the floor.

- Point of Appeal is a request of a member to challenge a decision of the Chairperson concerning the application of the Rules of Order. A Point of Appeal shall customarily be in order immediately following the Chairperson's decision and may be declared out of order and unavailable where the Body has relied upon the Chairperson's decision and continued the proceeding in reliance upon, or in accordance with, the Chairperson's decision. The member making the Point of Appeal may briefly state his or her reason for the Point, and the Chairperson may briefly explain his or her ruling, but there shall be no further debate on the appeal.

As an example of the use of a Point of Appeal when a motion is pending discussion:

Chairperson: "We have on the floor a Motion to Call the Question that was seconded." The vote on a Motion to Call the Question is not debatable and will require a majority vote of the quorum present."

Member Thomas: "Point of Appeal"

Chairperson: Mr. Thomas has raised a Point of Appeal. Mr. Thomas, you have the floor. What is your appeal?"

Member Thomas: I appeal the Chairperson's decision regarding the required vote on a Motion to Call the Question. A Motion to Call the Question requires a 2/3rds vote pursuant to our Rules of Order.

Chairperson: "My decision regarding the required vote is being appealed. I believe that closing debate is a rather simple matter only requiring a majority vote like a majority of all of our motions."

"We shall now vote on the appeal. Mr. Thomas appeals my decision regarding a vote on a Motion to Call the Question requires a simple majority of this quorum. Mr. Thomas asserts it should be a 2/3rds vote. The question we are now voting on is 'Shall the decision of the Chairperson be sustained?'"

[The Members vote to not sustain (they overturn) the Chairperson's decision.]

Chairperson: "My decision is overturned on appeal. I stand corrected and will now declare that the Motion to Call the Question requires a vote of 2/3rds of the members of the Body. Let us proceed to the consideration of the Motion to Call the Question."

B. Motions

- Motion to Recess (Privileged)

A Motion to Recess is intended to provide a temporary cessation in the meeting to accommodate matters such as restroom breaks or to consult with legal counsel or administrative staff. The motion should state approximate amount of time for the requested recess as a convenience to other members and the public in attendance. A second is required and the motion is not debatable and requires an immediate vote. A majority vote of quorum present required for approval.

As an example of a Motion to Recess, such motion might be stated as:

Member Thomas: "I move to recess our meeting for 15 minutes until 7:30."

Member Jones: "Second."

Chairperson: "We have a Motion to Recess on the floor to recess until 7:30. Because this motion is not debatable, would the clerk please call for the vote."

- Motion to Adjourn (Main)

Motion to Adjourn is available to cease further action of the Body and immediately terminate the meeting. A Motion to Adjourn is debatable and requires a majority vote of quorum present required. Caution should be exercised when presenting a Motion to Adjourn when items are pending on the agenda that required prior notice (such as public hearing publication or posting of property) because these matters must be properly continued to a future date or new notice published and/or posted.

As an example of a Motion to Adjourn, such motion might be stated as:

Member Thomas: "I move to adjourn this meeting."

Member Jones: "Second."

Chairperson: "We have a Motion to Adjourn on the floor. Member Thomas, did you want to speak to your motion or open any debate?"

Member Thomas: "Thank you. I believe the remaining items on our agenda are not important and it is already 11:00 p.m. I believe we are all tired and can no longer concentrate."

Chairperson: Any other debate? Seeing none, would the clerk please call for the vote? Please note that only a simple majority of our quorum present tonight is needed to adjourn.”

- Motion to Reconsider (Main)

A Motion to Reconsider is an extraordinary motion that requires a degree of care in presenting and, if approved, care in processing the matter to be reconsidered. A successful Motion to Reconsider will effectively void the prior vote taken on the previously decided motion and cause the matter to be reopened for another motion and a new consideration.

A Motion to Reconsider is only in order at the same meeting at which the decision to be reconsidered was made or at the next regular meeting of the Body. The motion must be made by a member on the prevailing side of the original motion to be reconsidered. The required second on the motion need not be a member from prevailing side. The motion is debatable but only for the reasons to explain or justify reconsideration and not for the purpose of debating the merits of the original motion.

A supermajority vote of 2/3rds of the quorum present is required for approval. All proceedings, testimony, evidence, and debate on the matter presented during the initial consideration of the original matter will remain part of the official record; only the decision or vote taken is voided.

In the event of a successful Motion for Reconsideration, it is recommended that the reconsideration of the original matter be continued to a future date as opposed to being heard at the same meeting in which the Motion for Reconsideration was approved. This recommendation stems from the fact that the matter under reconsideration will likely require new public notice so that interested parties (and possibly an applicant whose rights are being decided) are apprised of the new consideration and can attend and participate in the new consideration. Even when a successful Motion for Reconsideration was presented in the same night as the matter subject to reconsideration, the parties present for the original matter may have departed the meeting after what appeared to those attending to be a final decision on the original motion. Fairness will often dictate that the reconsideration be scheduled for a future date.

As an example of the typical process surrounding a Motion to Reconsider, such motion might be stated as:

Member Thomas: “I move to reconsider our decision to approve Ordinance 14 which required all owners to keep their dogs on leashes at all times. I believe I can make this motion because I voted “yes” on the ordinance and it was approved at our last meeting.”

Member Jones: “Second.”

Chairperson: “We have on the floor a Motion to Reconsider Ordinance 14 concerning our new dog leash law.

This document contains excerpts from previously copyrighted material and in this form is also protected by copyright. Permission for reasonable use can be requested by contacting the author, Robert C. Widner at rwidner@wmcattorneys.com or 13133 E. Arapahoe Road, Suite 100, Centennial, Colorado 80112.

Please note that a Motion to Reconsider, if we approve it tonight, will reopen the consideration of Ordinance 14 and require new debate, a new motion, and a new vote. Member Thomas, did you want to speak to your Motion to Reconsider? Please note that you are free to discuss the reason why you wish to seek reconsideration but this is not intended to be a debate of the merits of Ordinance 14 at this time.”

Member Thomas: “Thank you. I would like us to reconsider Ordinance 14 because upon reflection over the last week I believe the Ordinance may be too restrictive and we might want to consider allowing an exemption to the leash requirement for owners that can maintain control over their dogs by using voice command.”

Chairperson: “Any other debate concerning whether we should reconsider Ordinance 14? Seeing none, would the clerk please call for the vote. Please note that this Motion to Reconsider requires a supermajority of 2/3rds of the quorum present tonight to be approved. If approved, our administrative staff will need to schedule Ordinance 14 for discussion at a future date and provide or publish any required notices to the public concerning our reconsideration of Ordinance 14.”

- Motion to Postpone an Agenda Item to Date Certain (Main)

A Motion to Postpone an Agenda Item to a Date Certain pertains to a matter that is not presently on the floor but is scheduled for later consideration on the Body’s agenda. The motion must identify a date and time certain for the agenda item to be reset for Body consideration. If the Moving Party desires to indefinitely postpone an item, a Motion to Postpone indefinitely is the appropriate motion (see below). The Motion to Postpone an Agenda Item to a Date Certain is debatable. A majority vote of quorum present required for approval.

As an example of a Motion to Postpone an Agenda Item to Date Certain, such motion might be stated as:

Member Smith: “I move to Postpone Agenda Item 8 which pertains to funding of the repainting of the offices in the City Hall to our meeting on August 15 at 7:00 p.m. here in our Council Chambers.”

Member Edwards: “Second.”

Chairperson: “We have a Motion to Postpone Agenda Item 8 which pertains to the funding of the repainting of the offices. This motion is debatable, so I would offer Mr. Smith and other Members an opportunity to comment on the motion”.

Member Smith: “I believe that this is not an urgent matter and, quite frankly, there are more pressing matters to fully consider tonight. The August 15 agenda looks like a light meeting.”

Chairperson: “Any other discussion? Seeing none, would the clerk please call for the vote?”

• Motion to Postpone Indefinitely (Main)

A Motion to Postpone Indefinitely will effectively kill a matter that is subject to the Body’s consideration (and is usually on the meeting agenda or scheduled on a future agenda). This motion will remove the matter from the Body’s consideration without full debate of the matter and without directly voting the matter down on the matter’s merits. It is most commonly used to eliminate a matter from the current and/or future agendas because there is insufficient interest on the Body to hear the matter. As a caution, a Motion to Postpone Indefinitely would not be appropriate where the item involves a quasi-judicial matter for which an applicant has a right to a hearing and opportunity to be heard; legal counsel should be consulted regarding the use of this Motion for any quasi-judicial matter. The motion is debatable. A majority vote of quorum present required for approval. If approved, the matter will not be brought back to the Body unless the Body instructs that the item return for a future agenda.

As an example of a Motion to Postpone Indefinitely, such motion might be stated as:

Member Johnson: “I move to Postpone Indefinitely Agenda Item 2 which pertains to enacting a leash law for all cats in the city.”

Member Samuels: “Second.”

Chairperson: “We have a Motion to Postpone Agenda Item 2 indefinitely which pertains to our imposing a leash law on cats. This motion is debatable and requires a majority vote of the quorum present tonight. I would offer Ms. Johnson and other Members an opportunity to comment on the motion.”

Member Johnson: “I have talked with many citizens about this proposal and believe that we are likely to be harshly criticized should be enact such an ordinance. So I think it is a waste of our time to continue to entertain this idea and I prefer just to eliminate the matter from tonight's agenda and our future consideration."

Chairperson: "Any other discussion? [Member Thomas requests floor] The floor recognizes, Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas you have the floor."

Mr. Thomas: "Thank you. Although I agree with Ms. Johnson about the public sentiment we are likely to hear about leashing cats, I think we should at least open the public debate and have the citizens comment to us directly. So I oppose the motion to postpone indefinitely."

Chairperson: "Seeing no other discussion, would the clerk please call for the vote."

[Vote fails to gain the required simple majority vote needed for a Motion to Postpone Indefinitely.]

Chairperson: "We do not have the required majority of the quorum so the offered motion is rejected or fails. We will consider the matter of leashing cats as our scheduled Agenda Item 2 tonight."

- Motion to Amend (a Main Motion) (Subordinate)

A Motion to Amend (a Main Motion) is applicable only to a Main motion on the floor. The motion must provide specificity as to the intended amendment. The motion is debatable. A majority vote of a quorum present required for approval. A motion to amend is not in order when another motion to amend is already pending (made and seconded) before the Body; e.g., the Body will deal with only one Motion to Amend at a time to avoid confusion.

As an example of a Motion to Amend a Main Motion, such motion might be stated as:

Member Smith: I move to Approve Ordinance No. 6 as presented to us tonight."

Member Jackson: "Second."

Chairperson: "We have a proper Motion on the floor that has received a second to approve Ordinance No. 6. Any discussion?"

Chairperson: "Yes, the Chair recognizes Mr. James. Mr. James, you have the floor."

Member James: “Thank you. I move to amend the motion offered by Ms. Smith to change the amount of the penalty for the first violation stated in Section 1-1-3 on page 3 of Ordinance No. 6 from the stated $100 for the first offense to $200 for the first offense.”

Member Samuel: “Second.”

Chairperson: “We have a Motion to Amend before us to change the penalty in Section 1-1-3 of Ordinance No. 6 from $100 to $200 for the first offense. We will take up the Motion to Amend first and decide that Motion before we consider the Main Motion. It is debatable and requires a simple majority vote. I see no one wishing to comment or debate the offered amendment to Ordinance No. 6. Would the clerk call for the vote on the Motion to Amend only.”

[Motion receives majority vote of approval.]

Chairperson: ”The Motion to Amend is approved so Ordinance No. 6 is now amended to change the penalty for a first offense to $200. We next turn to the Main Motion to approve Ordinance 6, now as amended. Any debate on Ordinance No. 6 as amended? Seeing none, would the clerk please call for the vote of Ordinance No. 6 as it was amended?”

• Motion to Continue Matter to Date Certain (Subordinate)

A Motion to Continue a Matter (that is before the Body) to a Date Certain postpones to holdover the current motion to a specific date, time, and place stated in the motion. Note that a motion to continue a matter without stating a date certain would operate more like a Motion to Postpone Indefinitely (see above) and would require the matter to be affirmatively requested by the Body for future consideration and reintroduced and, when required, new publication of notice of the hearing or discussion. The motion is debatable. A majority vote of a quorum present required for approval.

As an example of a Motion to Continue a Matter to a Date Certain, such motion might be stated as:

Member Smith: “I move to continue this matter under consideration to our meeting on February 23 at 7:00 p.m. here in our Council Chambers.”

Member Edwards: “Second.”

Chairperson: “We have a Motion to Continue this matter we are considering to a date and time certain, that being our meeting of February 23, at 7:00 p.m. here in our Council Chambers. This motion is debatable and only requires a majority of the quorum here this evening. I would offer Mr. Smith and other Members an opportunity to comment on the motion.”

Member Smith: “I believe we need a continuation so that we can have a full opportunity to review the traffic study we received tonight. Without my detailed review of that study, I do not believe I am able to make an informed decision on the matter pending before us.”

Chairperson: “Any other discussion? The Chair recognizes Ms. Hampton.”

Member Hampton: “We have all had the traffic study for more than a month and we received a presentation on the study contents last week. With all respect to Mr. Smith, I believe a majority of us are fully informed and we can decide the issue tonight.”

Chairperson: “Seeing no other request to debate, would the clerk please call for the vote?”

• Motion to Call the Question (Subordinate)

A Motion to Call the Question (also more correctly phrased as to “Close Debate”) will close further debate and require vote on the motion pending before the Body. The motion applies only to the motion on the floor. The motion is not debatable. Due to the fact that such a motion will forestall the Body’s ability to discuss the merits of the pending matter, a supermajority vote of 2/3rds of the quorum present is required for approval in order that the Body evidences a strong intent that continuing debate is not necessary to decide the matter.

As an example of a Motion to Call the Question (or Close Debate), such motion might be stated as:

[A debatable motion is pending before the Body and the Body is engaged in debate.]

Member Bernie: “I move to Call the Question.”

Member Jones: “Second.”

Chairperson: “We have Motion to call the Question which will, if approved, close all debate on the matter presently before us and require a vote. This motion is not debatable. This motion will require a supermajority of our quorum by 2/3rds. Would the clerk please call for the vote?”

Chairperson: “The Motion to Call the Question is approved by a 2/3rds vote. Would the Clerk please call for the vote on the main motion?”

• Motion for Executive Session (Privileged)

Executive sessions are expressly permitted by state law to allow the Body to discuss certain topics in a closed non-public setting. The most common authorized executive session topics for local government include:

- A. Purchase, acquisition, lease, transfer, or sale of any real, personal, or other property interest; except that no executive session shall be held for the purpose of concealing the fact that a member of the local public body has a personal interest in such purchase, acquisition, lease, transfer, or sale.²
- B. Conferences with an attorney for the local public body for the purposes of receiving legal advice on specific legal questions. Mere presence or participation of an attorney at an executive session of the local public body is not sufficient to qualify the executive session as a session involving legal advice.³
- C. Matters required to be kept confidential by federal or state law or rules and regulations. The Body shall announce the specific citation of the statutes or rules that are the basis for such confidentiality before holding the executive session.⁴
- D. Specialized details of security arrangements or investigations, including defenses against terrorism, both domestic and foreign, and including where disclosure of the matters discussed might reveal information that could be used for the purpose of committing, or avoiding prosecution for, a violation of the law.⁵
- E. Determining positions relative to matters that may be subject to negotiations; developing strategy for negotiations; and instructing negotiators.⁶
- F. Personnel matters except if the employee who is the subject of the session has requested an open meeting, or if the personnel matter involves more than one employee, all of the employees have requested an open meeting.⁷ However, you cannot hold an executive session for “personal matters” to discuss:
 - (i) an elected official or an appointed member of the Body;⁸ or

² C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(a).

³ C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(b).

⁴ C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(c).

⁵ C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(d).

⁶ C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(e).

⁷ C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(f)(I).

⁸ C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(f)(II).

- (ii) the appointment of a person to fill an appointed⁹ or elective office; or
- (iii) personnel policies that do not require the discussion of matters personal to particular employees.¹⁰

G. Consideration of any documents protected by the mandatory nondisclosure provisions of the "Colorado Open Records Act",¹¹ except that all consideration of documents or records that are work product as defined in C.R.S. § 24-72-2020 or that are subject to the governmental or deliberative process privilege shall occur in a public meeting unless an executive session is otherwise allowed pursuant to state law.

Because the authorized purposes for executive session are limited and because errors in calling for an executive session may result in the session discussion becoming subject to public disclosure or actions, if any, invalidated, it is always advised to obtain legal advice regarding each motion.

Unlike other matters that will be open for public discussion, debated, and possibly decided by the Body, it is not necessary that the Executive Session be listed on the meeting agenda in advance. Oftentimes, the Body has no need for an executive session and the need arises during the meeting. For example, the need for legal advice may not be known until evidence or information is presented that give rise to a question requiring consultation with the Body's counsel.

The Motion for Executive Session must include the citation to Colorado Revised Statute subsection authorizing session and a brief description of subject matter.

The motion is debatable. However, care should be taken during debate to not disclose any confidential or sensitive information that might undermine the purpose of the executive session. For example, a town board member may state in debate during the public meeting that an executive session should be held to allow the council to decide "whether to spend up to $2,000,000 on the acquisition of the vacant Thompson Property for a public park." Such public disclosure would essentially undermine the purpose of the executive session, that is, to give the town board the opportunity to determine negotiation strategy and the total amount willing to be paid to the seller for the Thompson Property. More appropriate would be to declare in debate that the executive session is needed to "allow the town board to decide the maximum amount the negotiation team can offer in negotiation."

⁹ Id. A special statutory provision of the Colorado Open Meetings Law (C.R.S. § 24-6-402(3.5)) may authorize non-public executive sessions to conduct some of the business associated with selecting the chief executive officer (commonly considered as the "city manager" or "town administrator.") Consult your local counsel to understand the steps necessary to hold these special forms of non-public public meetings.

¹⁰ C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(II).

¹¹ Id.

Very importantly, a supermajority of 2/3rds of quorum present required for approval pursuant to the Colorado Open Meetings Law.

As an example of a Motion for Executive Session to obtain legal advice, such motion might be stated as follows:

Member Thomas: "I move to hold an executive session pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(b) to receive legal advice on the right to impose a condition on the proposed rezoning application under discussion."

Member Jones: "Second."

Chairperson: "Is there any debate on this motion? Seeing none, would the clerk please call for the vote?" Please note that the vote required for executive session is a 2/3rds of the quorum present tonight."

[Vote by the Body is taken and the vote is unanimous.]

Chairperson: "We are now authorized to enter into executive session."

The Location of Executive Session

State law does not require that executive sessions be conducted in any particular location. Most communities remove the Body to a side room or conference chambers that allows for private conversation outside the hearing of the general public. Other communities ask members of the public attending the body's meeting to exit the room to allow the necessary confidential conversation.

Confidentiality of Executive Sessions

Contrary to popular belief, there are no specific laws that require confidentiality of discussion in executive session or prohibit disclosure of confidential information discussed in an executive session. Attendees may, therefore, believe they are free to disclose information provided to them during the session. However, state law imposes upon all municipal officials, officers, and employees a general statutory obligation to protect the public trust.¹² Where disclosure of confidential information harms the interests of the public, such disclosure may subject the official, officer, or employee to prosecution for the monetary harm inflicted on the public due to such disclosure.¹³ As a better protection, local rules of ethics and conduct may be enacted to expressly provide that executive session information is deemed confidential and the disclosure of such information may violate local ethics standards and, for employees, may lead to disciplinary action.

Who May Attend an Executive Session?

State law does not specify who may attend an executive session. It is commonly understood that the Body determines the individuals that are necessary to conduct the executive session and provide the background information and advice to the Body. Besides the Body members, the most common attendees include the city or town manager or administrator, the Body's legal counsel, and administrative staff members involved in the particular issue under discussion. Obviously, the city or town legal counsel is required for any executive session convened for the purpose of obtaining legal advice pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(b).

A special note should be made when inviting individuals into the executive session who are not members of the municipal government. These individuals will not be bound to any local rules such as local ethics rules or personnel rules that require confidentiality. It is not uncommon for a municipality to require some form of confidentiality agreement or understanding by the non-municipal attendee as a condition of attendance.

On occasion, a Body member or several members of the Body may request that another member of the Body be excluded from the executive session. Such exclusion may be due to a myriad of reasons, for example, an actual or perceived conflict of interest, unwillingness of the excluded member to agree to keep executive session information confidential, or lack of confidence in the excluded member to maintain confidences. Although state law does not provide a means or method for exclusion of a Body member from an executive session, the law does not, conversely, give an absolute right to a Body member to attend every executive session. It is recommended that local policy be created and approved by the Body that specifically authorizes the Body, as a whole, to decide executive session attendees.
