Elected officials receive leadership training awards

Sept. 27, 2021, Westminster, Colo. – During the Colorado Municipal League’s (CML) recent Special Conference, CML recognized municipal elected officials statewide who reached milestone levels in its MUNiversity program – a leadership program for Colorado’s municipal elected officials. This program was started in January 1991 by the League’s Executive Board to recognize the efforts of officials who go the extra mile to increase their knowledge of municipal government and their capacity to lead.

To reach the Graduate level of the program, officials must complete 100 credit hours. Officials who reached this elite level were:

- La Jara: Mayor Paula Medina
- Steamboat Springs: Council President Pro Tem Kathi Meyer

To reach the Leadership level of the program, officials must complete 60 credit hours. Officials who reached this level were:

- Aurora: Councilmember Angela Lawson
- Brighton: Mayor Gregory Mills
- Brighton: Councilmember Mark Humbert
- Colorado Springs: Mayor John Suthers
- Edgewater: Mayor Pro Tem Steve Conklin
- Gunnison: Mayor James Gelwicks
- La Junta: Mayor Jeffri Pruyn
- Lakewood: Mayor Pro Tem Charley Able
- Montrose: Councilmember Barbara Bynum
- Ridgway: Mayor John Clark
- Sheridan: Mayor Tara Beiter-Fluhr
- Windsor: Mayor Paul Rennemeyer

CML is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization established in 1923 and represents the interests of 270 cities and towns. For more information on the Colorado Municipal League, please visit www.cml.org or call 303-831-6411.
