COLORADO MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

ABOUT CML

ADVOCACY, INFORMATION, AND TRAINING TO BUILD STRONGER CITIES AND TOWNS

Advocacy

CML is your voice before the state and federal government, employing full-time lobbyists to ensure that all municipalities are well represented at the State Capitol.

The League monitors the Colorado legislature for proposals that would affect municipalities and works to pass, defeat, or amend legislation in accordance with general municipal interests and membership direction. The work of state agencies also is under the watchful eye of CML, as are statewide ballot issues.

CML is recognized and respected as the leading municipal voice before the General Assembly, Congress, and the courts.

CML represents Colorado municipal interests at the federal level, as well, and is an active member of the National League of Cities.

The League participates as amicus curiae (friend of the court) in state and federal appellate court cases that involve issues important to municipalities.

Training

CML offers dynamic events and workshops to support your continuing education and training. The sessions and meetings attract about 1,000 participants from throughout Colorado every year.

League workshops are affordable, capacity-building sessions that promote better understanding of municipal government and provide tools for effective leadership. Topics are timely and relevant.

Each June, the CML Annual Conference is the premier meeting for municipal officials in Colorado. The Annual Seminar on Municipal Law is held each fall, while each February brings officials from cities and towns across the state to meet in Denver for the Annual Legislative Workshop and an audience with state lawmakers.

The League also hosts informative meetings across the state each spring and fall.

Information

CML provides the accessible information you need to serve your municipality and its residents.

Each year, staff responds to individual inquiries with information and advice about municipal government, as well as sample documents from the League's extensive library.

CML periodicals (the award-winning bimonthly magazine, Colorado Municipalities and the biweekly CML Newsletter) and books capture important technical and legal research.

The League also distributes emails (CML Update) on emerging issues and continuously updates our website, www.cml.org, as well as produces the Statehouse Report during the legislative session.

Stronger cities and towns

CML is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that has served and represented Colorado's cities and towns since 1923. The League offers membership to any incorporated city or town in Colorado, and currently serves more than 99 percent of Colorado's municipalities.

Major policies of CML are established by the membership at an annual business meeting and by the CML Executive Board and Policy Committee. The Executive Board is comprised of 21 officials who are elected by the membership at the CML annual business meeting. They serve for one- and two-year terms. Daily operations of the League are carried out by CML staff.

CML also has special-interest sections that cooperate with and help the municipal officials performing specific functions for their communities. Examples of sections include Mayors and Councilmembers, Managers, Attorneys, Clerks, Public Information Officers, and Public Works Directors.

CML is organized into 14 districts, along the same geographic lines as the state's 14 planning regions. Each district elects officers and holds at least one meeting a year that includes a program of interest to officials in that district. The sections and districts give CML depth and breadth in its understanding of municipal needs.
