MUNIVERSITY

A leadership program for Colorado's municipal elected officials

CML MUNIVERSITY

The Colorado Municipal League (CML) believes that elected municipal officials investing time and resources to participate in educational events, in an effort to increase their knowledge of municipal government and enhance their capacity to lead, should be recognized. For this reason, in 1991 the CML Executive Board created an Elected Officials Leadership Training Program, now known as CML MUNiversity.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I register for the program?

There is no need to register – we have done it for you! All elected officials of CML's member municipalities are automatically enrolled in the program.

How do I get credit?

Each CML training event is assigned a specific credit value, usually based on the length of the training. When you participate in a CML webinar, a CML in-person workshop, the CML annual conference, or other credit-eligible CML event, you automatically receive the specified number of credits.

Do I fill out a form during the workshop to get credit?

Credit will be automatically awarded to you after each training event that you attend.

Do I get credit for attending the CML annual conference?

A predetermined number of credits will be awarded for attending the conference.

How can I find out the number of MUNiversity credits I have?

Log in at www.cml.org, click on your name, and then click on credits.

How will I know when I have reached a new level?

We will notify you several weeks prior to the CML annual conference in June, which is where elected officials are recognized for achieving a new level in the program. After the conference, a press release will be distributed listing all members who have achieved a new level.

Does MUNiversity recognize municipal staff members?

The program currently is only for elected officials.
